As a voluntary benefit that allows you to save on insurance that most people require, Group Savings Plus is a win-win solution for service and savings.

Now, Liberty Mutual is passing along savings on products and services geared toward safety and maintenance for auto, home and family. Through the Liberty Mutual Rewards program, employees are able to enjoy great discounts on auto, family and home related products from well-known national companies like the ones listed below. Companies are continuously being added to the website. And by taking advantage of this program, your premium may be reduced even further.
