Dr. Clinton E. Phillips was one of the pioneers of the MFT profession in California. He was totally committed to educating and training marriage and family therapists, in a variety of settings including the University of Southern California, American Institute of Family Relations, Fielding Institute and, of course, the California Family Study Center for which he was co founder. Clint was not only an educator but also a practitioner and theorist. The Educational Foundation Scholarship commemorating Clinton E. Phillips honors his memory by providing assistance to students of marriage and family therapy in completing advanced degrees.

The Educational Foundation Scholarship commemorating Clinton E. Phillips will be awarded to a person who:

is enrolled in an approved or accredited degree program - leading to a degree which meets the requirements of Sections 4980.37, 4980.40 and 4980.41 of the Business and Professions Code.

is licensed as a marriage and family therapist and is pursuing advanced training in an accredited or approved degree program.

has demonstrated a high degree of academic achievement.

has demonstrated financial need as established by the Scholarship Committee.

participates actively in community and civic events.

is committed to the profession of marriage and family therapy.

is of high moral and ethical character.

Preference may be given to applicants who have expressed their commitment to the profession through membership in CAMFT. The Scholarship will be awarded at the 47th Annual Conference.

If you have any questions, please contact CAMFT at (858) 292-2638 or via e-mail at scholarshipinfo@camft.org. Additional applications are available on the Web at www.camft.org under "Educational Opportunities."
